We would like to announce our new Commander-in-Chief, Tom Corbett, on his election as governor. Tom Corbett was inaugurated as the 46th Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania on January 18th, 2011.

A life-long Pennsylvania resident, Corbett has been a key advisor to U.S. Presidents and Governors. He has a long and distinguished career serving the citizens of the Commonwealth, making a significant impact on the lives of Pennsylvanians through his work on issues of criminal justice, victims' rights, and drug and alcohol prevention and rehabilitation.

In the early 1980's, Tom Corbett served President Ronald Reagan as an Assistant U.S. Attorney for the Western District of Pennsylvania, specializing in prosecuting organized crime and drug cases. He was also named as one of the first members of President Reagan’s National Drug Task Force.

Following several years of private law practice, Corbett was called back to public service in 1989, when President George H. W. Bush appointed him to serve as U.S. Attorney for the Western District of Pennsylvania.

In the 1990's, Corbett provided criminal law and policy expertise to then-Congressman Tom Ridge, later filling several key roles in Governor Ridge's administration. Corbett planned the Governor's successful special session on crime and was appointed to chair the Pennsylvania Commission on Crime and Delinquency, shaping criminal justice policy and working to improve drug and alcohol prevention and rehabilitation programs across the state. In 1995, Corbett was appointed by Governor Ridge as Attorney General to fill the remainder of the current term. Upon receiving approval and confirmation from the Pennsylvania Senate, Corbett pledged that he would not run for re-election in 1996. He served as Attorney General in this capacity from 1995-1997.

In 1997, Corbett again returned to private practice, forming his own law firm, Thomas Corbett and Associates, which specialized in consultation and government relations. He continued that private practice until his election as Pennsylvania Attorney General in November 2004.

In 2008, Corbett was re-elected as Pennsylvania’s Attorney General with more than three million votes, more votes than any Republican candidate in the history of Pennsylvania.

Corbett's accomplishments as Attorney General have brought him national recognition. Most notable are his efforts to protect our children from internet predators, our seniors from fraud and abuse, our communities from gangs and the violence associated with illegal drugs, and the citizens of Pennsylvania from abuse of power and government corruption.

As Attorney General, Corbett has worked hard to protect taxpayers' hard earned money by going after predatory lenders, pharmaceutical companies, and big oil companies that took advantage of consumers. In less than six years, the Office of Attorney General saved Pennsylvania taxpayers over half a billion dollars.

Born and raised in Pennsylvania, Corbett served his country as a member of the Pennsylvania National Guards’ 28th Infantry Division from 1971 until 1984, rising from private to captain.

Corbett received his undergraduate degree from Lebanon Valley College in Annville, Pennsylvania, and taught civics and history at Pine Grove Area High School in Schuylkill County, Pennsylvania. In 1975, he received his law degree from St. Mary's University School of Law in San Antonio, Texas.

Corbett and his wife Susan reside in Shaler Township, Pennsylvania, and are the proud parents of two children: Tom, a graduate student at Carnegie Mellon University, and Katherine, a prosecutor in the Philadelphia District Attorney's office.
Governor Tom Corbett nominated Major General Wesley Craig, 64, of Oreland, Montgomery County, as Adjutant General of Pennsylvania. As such, Craig will lead the Department of Military and Veterans Affairs. Major General Wesley E. Craig assumed duties as the Acting Adjutant General, February 2011. In this State cabinet-level position, Major General Craig, headquartered at Fort Indiantown Gap, is responsible for command, control, and supervision of all Air and Army National Guard units allocated to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. He is also responsible for six (6) state-owned veterans’ homes and programs for Pennsylvania’s one million veterans. “Major General Craig has devoted his career to serving our nation,” Corbett said.

“His record of exemplary leadership, along with more than 30 years of military experience, makes him an ideal choice for Adjutant General.”

Craig retired in 2006 from the U.S. Army as Commanding General of the 28th Division, Pennsylvania National Guard, where he was responsible for 14,000 soldiers in 85 communities in three states and oversaw a combined budget of $635 million.

Craig also oversaw the selection, organization, mobilization, and deployment of more than 6,000 soldiers of the 28th Infantry Division to Iraq, Afghanistan, Kosovo, Kuwait, and Saudi Arabia.

During his career, Craig spent 11 years in senior-level command assignments: four years as the Commanding Officer of the 1-104 Armored Cavalry Squadron, four years as Commanding Officer of the 56th Brigade, and three years as Commanding General of the 28th Infantry Division.

Since his retirement, Craig has served as State Chairman of the Pennsylvania Committee for Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve, which is a Department of Defense organization that advocates for both employers and their employees who are members of the Guard and Reserve. Craig also serves as Chairman of the Board for the USO of Pennsylvania and Southern New Jersey, is a member of the Board of Trustees of the U.S. Army War College Foundation, and is an active speaker for Mission Readiness, a group that advocates for quality early childhood education. Craig graduated from Temple University Army ROTC program as a Distinguished Military Graduate in 1968 and graduated from the, U.S. Army War College in 1993. Craig and his wife, Marda, have been married for 36 years and have two children.

His military awards include: Army Distinguished Service Medal, Legion of Merit, Meritorious Service Medal (with 3 Bronze Oak Leaf Clusters), Army Commendation Medal (with 1 Bronze Oak Leaf Cluster), Army Achievement Medal, Army Reserve Components Achievement Medal (with 1 Silver Oak Leaf Cluster and 1 Bronze Oak Leaf Cluster), National Defense Service Medal (with 2 Bronze Service Stars), Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, Armed Forces Reserve Medal (with Gold Hourglass), Army Service Ribbon, Army Reserve Components Overseas Training Ribbon (with Numeral 5), Pennsylvania Distinguished Service Medal, Pennsylvania Meritorious Service Medal (with 1 Silver Star), Pennsylvania Service Ribbon (with Numeral 4), Pennsylvania Twenty Year Service Ribbon (with 3 Silver Stars), Major General Thomas R. White Jr. Medal General Thomas J. Stewart Medal, Governor’s Unit Citation.
Although the days leading up to our golf tournament were dreary, the sun was shining bright on September 11, 2010, for the Second Annual Foxhole Invitation. We could not have asked for a more beautiful day for golf!

As we prepared to release the golfers off to their first tee, we welcomed Chaplains LTC Douglas Etters and LTC Dale Pepper to the greens to take a moment to remember a true WWII hero, Major General Frank Smoker, who passed away in July. Frank was a friend who will be dearly missed. The Museum was a dream of his, and he turned that dream into a labor of love. Without him, the Museum would not be what it is today. The Chaplains then took a moment to remember those we lost 9 years earlier on this 11th day of September and to thank those who have put their lives on the line for our freedom.

As we drove a cart throughout the course, it was inspiring to watch the golfers play the game they love as the troops of the PA National Guard were flying overhead in the skies above. Many thought that was planned, but it was just another drill weekend in the life of soldier, doing what they love.

We would like to thank all of the golfers who came out to play and the troops who make that possible. We had 29 foursomes for a total of 116 golfers.

First Place was awarded to Frank and Daniel Deyo from Carlisle, Gary Dwyer from Harrisburg, and Steve Dwyer from New Cumberland.

Second Place was awarded to Jim Snow from York, Tim Yeatts from Etters, Fred Anderson from New Cumberland, and Ed Caudill from Lebanon.

The winner of the Closest to the Pin contest was Bill Boben from Lancaster.

The winner of the Longest Drive (sponsored by Edible Arrangement of Lebanon) were Bill Pence and Karen Munford. Each winner was presented a beautiful bouquet of fruit in a golf ball from Edible Arrangements.

As for the Putting Contest, we had three golfers that made the putt: Andy Weaver, Mark Keister, and Joe Hanna. The winner of the Yuengling Golf Bag was Joe Hanna.

Beat the Pro was again a crowd pleaser, and we would like to thank our pro, Tom Kintzer of Fredericksburg, for spending the day challenging the golfers. Thanks Tom for a job well done!!!
We would also like to thank the following sponsors for making our Second Annual Foxhole Invitational Golf Tournament a memorable one. The tournament was a great success, and we could not have done it without them. We look forward to their continued support in the years to come.

STUDENT RAISES FUNDS FOR MEMORIAL

Jordon Brown, 11, a fifth grader at South Lebanon Elementary School, has raised about $23,000 dollars by selling over 7,000 olive drab wristbands to erect a statue of Major Dick Winters of the movie “Band of Brothers” fame. The wristbands are marked with Winters’ motto “Hang tough” on each one. Jordon who is working with Tim Gray, a filmmaker from Rhode Island are trying to raise the full amount of $200,000 needed for the monument plus about $64,000 for the documentary. So far Jordan has reported that the group has raised $90,000.

The wristband project grew out of Jordan’s interest in World War II and Winters, along with his work on other fundraisers in the past, including one for Haiti. Jordan has said he came up with the idea to sell wristbands after his mom showed him an article about Gray’s effort to build the statue in Normandy.

For those that are interested in purchasing a wristband for one dollar, to support the fundraising effort, they can be purchased at the museum during normal business hours.

THANKS TO OUR VOLUNTEERS

The Pennsylvania National Guard Military Museum is run by a staff of very dedicated volunteers and some behind the scene volunteers. We would like to thank them for their tireless efforts because they are the reason that our museum is what it has become today.

LTC Rick Shertzer (USA, Retired) has been very helpful in doing tasks around the museum. He had organized our library and is now in the process of organizing some of our photo library as well.

We are very thankful to the 201st Red Horse Veterans who have donated their time and efforts in beautifully restoring the 1890s Range House interior. Those members are:
- Gordy Ebright
- Duke Munford
- Larry Boyer
- Randy Eckert
- Kenny Waltermeyer
- Denny Hartman
- Gary Gillen
- Harry Kapp
- Rick Eisenhauser

Finally, the museum would like to thank “Doc” Woods who has supported the PNGMM in various aspects of material and work related services thru the State Reservation Maintenance Office.

It’s the people who make the museum projects come alive and insure that the story of the Pennsylvania National Guard is told. If you have some time and talent to contribute, in any amount, please contact us at the museum at 717-861-2402.

MUSEUM WISH LIST

- Seeking Various DUIs (unit crests) and patches from PA National Guard units.
- Flat Map cabinets for storage of guidons, regimental colors, and for military maps.
- Military History books for our museum library and for research.

CURATOR’S CORNER by CHARLES B. OELLIG

Here is an interesting study in facial expressions and personalities of the young Soldiers of Company E, 3rd Regiment Infantry, National Guard of Pennsylvania.

From the two smiling chaps in the back row and the company supply sergeant standing to the right, to the seated fellow with the broken arm, to the corporal in the front row with the bad teeth, to the sad private seated to the far right.

All of the men in uniform are wearing a pair of one-inch bronze keystones with crossed rifles, a number three and the letter E on the collars of their khaki coats. On the front of the campaign hats, they wear a blue infantry cord and a small leather keystone with the unit number and letter. This photo of the Philadelphia-based 3rd Regiment was made around 1908.

This is the 29th in a series of historical photographs of Pennsylvania National Guardsmen of the past, submitted by Charles Oellig, curator of the Pennsylvania National Guard Military Museum at Fort Indiantown Gap. The museum is open Mondays and Fridays, from 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. or other days by appointment. Call (717) 861-2402 or visit: www.pngmilitarymuseum.org for more information or to schedule an appointment. The museum is closed on major holidays.
HOURS
Hours are 10:00-4:30 (Monday & Friday).
To schedule an appointment to visit the museum at a time not listed, call our Museum Director, Mr. Charlie B. Oellig at the museum Monday & Friday at 717-861-2402, our Command Historian, SGT Damian J. M. Smith, at 717-861-2464, or the Cultural Resources Manager, Ms. Rita Meneses at 717-861-9415.

DIRECTIONS
From I-81, take exit 85B(northbound) or exit 85 (southbound), Fort Indiantown Gap exit, and proceed north on Route 934. At the first red light on post, turn right onto Service Road. Drive four tenths of a mile down the road. The museum is located at the corner of Service Road and Wiley Road, building number T-8-57. Look for the Civil War Cannon, Korean era tank, and the museum signs on the right hand side.
